

Accreditation Standards Supporting Evidence

A+ Accreditation Standard	Evidence to Satisfy Accreditation Standard
1. Scope
1.1 This Standard establishes requirements that measure practices employed by all sizes and types of Senior and Specialty Move Management Companies (MMCs) to enhance the performance of the MMC and its staff.
1.2 This Standard establishes that each individual MMC is unique, and is permitted to create its own measurable outcomes to support the business model. A MMC's compliance with this Standard is dependent upon the MMC's implementation of its own definitions, procedures, and policies as they relate to each element in this Standard.
1.3 Each geographic location of an MMC must apply and qualify for accreditation based on their own operations, and must meet the standards outlined in their entirety
1.3 Each geographic location of an MMC must have a qualifying agent (representative of the MMC who is responsible for the Accreditation standards), who also holds the NASMM SMM-C certification

1.4 Accreditation will be renewed every five years, at which time the MMC will provide the following: 1.4.1 Proof that the MMC has a Qualifying Agent on staff that has continued to meet the SMM-C standards for Continuing Education (CE) credits and other requirements necessary for maintenance of the SMM-C certification 1.4.2 Certification that the MMC meets all Accreditation standards in place at time of renewal 1.4.3 Proof of at minimum 50 invoiced projects in the year prior to renewal
